E. _____.

I. God did not give me enough hours in a day.神沒有給我在一天中有足夠的小時數。

'Christians are like trains—always on the move, always in a rush, and always _____.' /基督徒像高鐵一樣, 經常在奔, 經常在跑, 而且常常_____ —(Robert Banks, The Tyranny of Time: When 24 Hours Is Not Enough, InterVarsity, Downers Grove, IL, 1983, p. 32.)

Solution on the Surface—

Solution for your heart—

II. God had it all wrong, when He gave me the entire world to manage and yet required me to rest one day a week. 神要我管理整個世界, 卻要我七天要休息一天。

【可 Mark 6:7~13; 30~31】

【可 Mark 6:35~45】

Solution 1—_____.

Solution 2—_____.

Solution 3—_____.

John the Baptist in his teaching to the Israelites:

【路 Luke 3:14】

Paul in his teaching to Timothy and the Christians:

【提前 1Tim 6:6~8】

III. God has not built me strong enough to fight off the stress of life or to fight off the anxiety.

【詩 Ps 90:2 12 17】

Conclusion 結論

【西 Col 4:5~6】

Make the best use of time/愛惜光陰 ≠ getting busy/忙碌.

【林前 1Cor 10:31】

Reflection:

1. Of the three “political correct” statements about time, which one is the most challenge to your way of life? Do you see any antidote for it? 在這三個“政治正確”的有關時間的話語之中, 哪一個對你是最大的挑戰? 你有甚麼治療的藥方嗎?

2. Being a Christian, how could we enjoy the life we have on this world at one hand, and not to be idle at the other hand? 作為一個基督徒, 如何可以一方面享受上帝給我們的生命, 另一方面又不會懶惰?
